

MBA 664 Financial Statement Analysis I (2 units)

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

Analysis of financial statements for business valuation and strategic considerations. Liquidity, debt-paying ability, profitability and investor analysis concepts are used to analyze the financial conditions of a business organization. Students will learn how to read, understand and analyze and interpret financial statements of actual companies. Prerequisite: Act 211 or equivalent.

MBA 665 Financial Statement Analysis II (2 units)

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

Continuation of MBA 664. Students will use technological analytic tools to perform an actual company analysis. Prerequisite: MBA 664.