

ALA 306 Issues in Literary Criticism 3 units

Develop skills in critically analyzing American, English and world literature will be emphasized in this course. You will be exposed to a variety of issues in literary criticism. You will discover how literature influences and has been influenced by culture, history and the author's experiences