

ALA 402 Math for Teachers 3 units

Mathematical methodology and appropriate styles and models will be presented in this course. Problem solving is emphasized throughout the course. You will learn about set theory, number theory, pre-operational skills, real numbers and their operations, geometry, measurement and statistics.