

CU Accelerate Faculty Profile

Dr. Terri Munroe, Ph.D.

Adjunct Professor

Contact Information

terri.munroe@cui.edu

Profile

Dr. Terri Munroe holds a doctorate in philosophy and depth psychology and is a professor and guest lecturer at several Orange County universities. Her expertise lies in literary studies with an emphasis in mythology and folklore. She has taught Literary Criticism in the Accelerated Program for seven years. She is an educator with over twenty-five years of K-12 classroom experience in both elementary and secondary public education. Dr. Munroe serves as an English Panel Member for the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing, reviewing university English programs for compliance with state standards. She continues to present at conferences for English Education and the American Academy of Religion. Before coming to education, she was involved in advertising and broadcast journalism. She also holds a masters degree in English and Comparative Literature, and maintains a single subject English, multiple subject, and administrative credentials.

Professional / Scholarly Presentations

Co-Author, Character in Motion, Chicken Soup for the Soul for Teens, 1999

Author, numerous curriculum publishers

Author, adult fiction short stories and children's literature.

Courses Taught at Concordia

ALA 306, Issues in Literary Criticism

English Education Courses